

Golden Sea Lit Up the Masterpiece "Memories of Matsuko" at Its Premiere in Shanghai

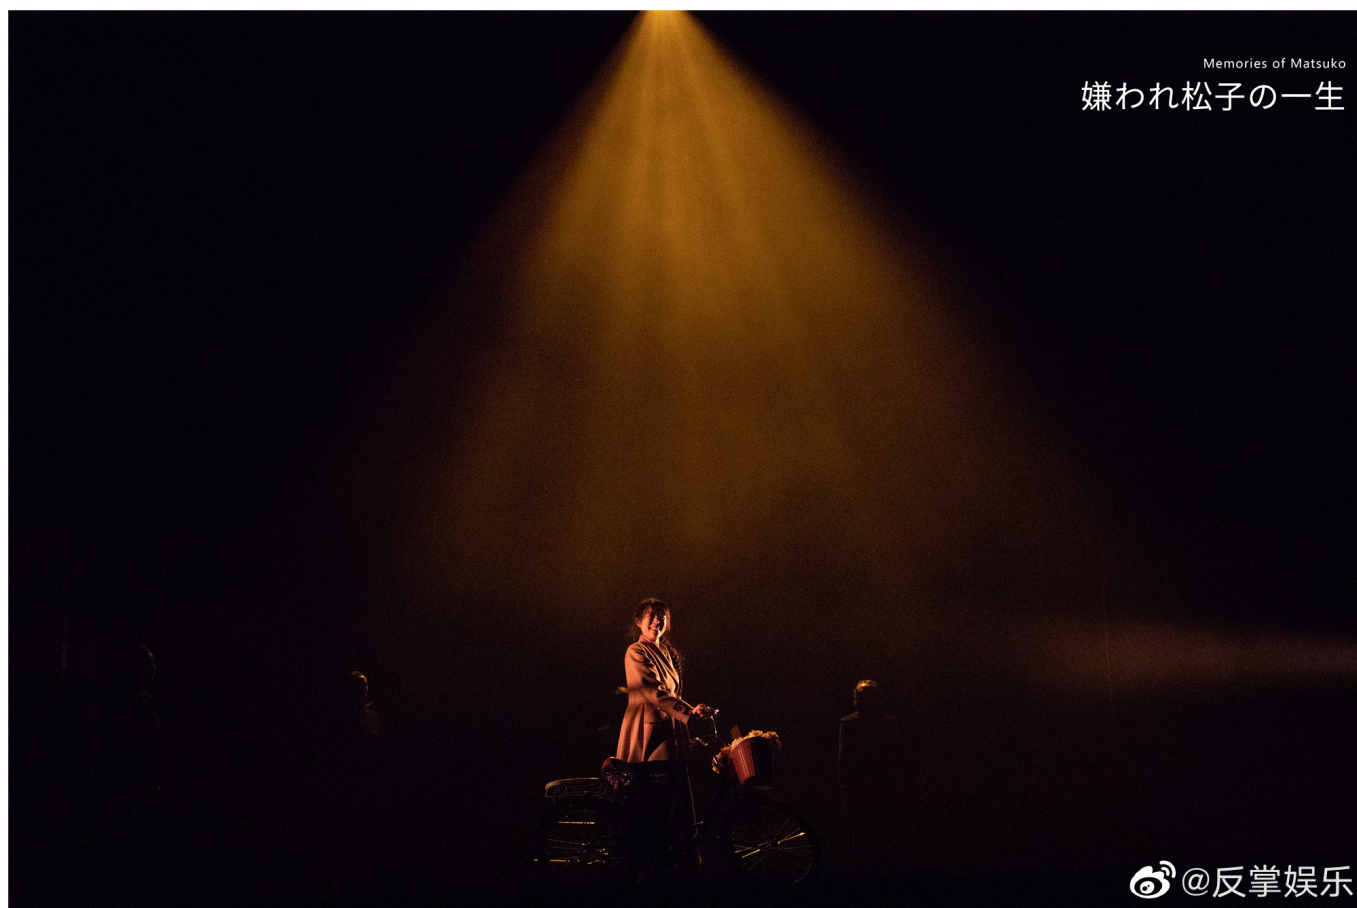

The novel "Memories of Matsuko", a masterpiece of Japanese socialist novelist Muneki Yamada, has recently premiered at Shanghai Oriental Art Center in the form of a drama. The unique stage language not only shapes the characters through the superb performance of the actors, but also needs to use the color change of the light and the alternation of the virtual and the reality to highlight the storyline with more layers and a sense of picture. Golden Sea's LED Profile GL6 gives lighting designers much creative possibilities, allowing the audience to follow the development of the story closely and feel Matsuko's rough and tortuous life of longing for love and being loved.
